

HM1 Sarah Burns, 31, was an amazing wife, sister, and friend. She was a kind, compassionate, and quiet person who deeply loved others and took extreme pride in serving her country. She was humble, goal oriented and worked tirelessly to be the best that she could be in all her endeavors. She was a role model for all and a true patriot. She is survived by her husband, Lucas.