Thanks to the generosity of Wings Over America, this scholarship will enable me to continue my education at one of the most prestigious communications schools in the country! The educational experience has provided me with the opportunity to learn from talented members of the advertising community and join a network of professionals to make connections for my future career. The aid from the 2017 scholarship award will help me to complete my degree, ready to pursue my goal of working at a major advertising agency. Thank you Wings! Go Navy! Go 'Cuse!!!!
