

HM2 Bailey Tucker, 21, was a humble son with increasing earnestness and strength. He was raised with discipline, loyalty, unity, and independence. Bailey dedicated his courage and values to service, joining the Navy to be part of something larger than himself. His sacrifice will forever be cherished, leaving those around him with aspirations to serve as well. He is survived by his parents, Jill and Jay.