The 2017 Wings Over America and USS Carl Vinson Scholarships mean a great deal to me as naval aviation and the military community have always been integral to my life. I cannot imagine how different my life would be without the influence of the military community. Receiving the scholarships from WOASF enables me to continue my education at a higher level while in the name of a community that I have always been a part of. I feel that because I am a representative of the military community it is important to show kindness and lend a helping hand to other much like our military personnel do for us. While my father was aboard the USS Carl Vinson, I experienced my first development as a three year old and so receiving this scholarship is representative of the struggle that most military families experience, and I am incredibly humbled to have received this award.
