WOASF Scholars—Changing the way we communicate

Each year we talk about how our foundation is growing and fortunately, 2017 has been another great year for WOASF. We awarded more scholarships for more money than ever before bringing our total awards to $1,400,000! While we love to highlight each of our current scholars on our website and Facebook page, we enjoy when former scholars contact us about what they are doing now and how WOASF has impacted their journey.

Samantha Gray is a four year award recipient. When we asked for pictures from our graduating scholars, Samantha went above and beyond the picture request. Here's what she had to share:

“As a recent graduate, I wish to thank Wings Over America Scholarship Foundation for your continuous support and encouragement throughout my undergraduate education at Swarthmore College, where I received my BA in Linguistics with high honors and dual minors in Cognitive Science and Psychology.

2017 Scholar recipients at the East Coast Reception.

Samantha Gray, 2017 graduate of Swarthmore College

With WOASF's assistance, I was also able to devote time each year to projects in my field, working as a research assistant in Swarthmore College's Endangered Languages Lab to promote the documentation, preservation, and revitalization of vulnerable languages. My efforts contributed towards the production of an online “talking dictionary” for Gta', a language of the Munda family spoken in India. During my sophomore and junior years, I attended summer workshops at the Navajo Language Academy, which is committed to preserving the Navajo language and teaching it to younger generations. I also helped to edit a Navajo grammar reference guide, and to develop a digitized library of previously recorded NLA workshops for use by Navajo students and educators.

Following graduation, I took additional classes in neurolinguistics and morphophonology at the Linguistic Society of America's Summer Institute, before beginning a five-year PhD program at the University of Chicago this fall. I plan to focus my graduate education on psycholinguistics and computational linguistics, aiming potentially towards a career in natural language processing. Eventually, I'd like to teach linguistics as well; my professors at Swarthmore were incredibly enthusiastic about their work (and about verbal morphology), and I want to spread that enthusiasm to others. It is my aspiration as a linguist to use our knowledge of language to improve how we communicate with each other in the future - between cultures, between humans and computers, and ultimately, between worlds we may know nothing of yet. Thank you, again, for supporting my goals and the aspirations of so many other military dependents.”

Thank You to Our Generous Event Sponsors

Letter from the President

Once again Wings Over America Scholarship Foundation had a banner year with over $200,000 in scholarships awarded. This level of awards could not be achieved without the generosity of our donors and the enthusiastic support of our volunteers as well as the guidance and oversight of the Board of Directors. Thank you to each of you who help WOASF "Invest in the Best". Please mark your calendars for one of Hampton Roads finest events.....the College A Cappella Concert at the Sandler Center in Virginia Beach on October 28th, 2017. This special concert will once again feature the "Hullabahoos" of the University of Virginia and for the first time we'll present "No Ceiling" from the College of William & Mary. Please join us for a wonderful evening of musical entertainment. Check the calendar on the back of this issue and make your plans for other WOASF events this year.

The fall issue includes recognition of this years scholarship recipients. Please take a moment to review the awards page. It is fascinating to see where our scholars are from, as well as where they are headed and we wish each of them continued success in their chosen field of study. Complete scholar information can be found on our website.

I would like to thank the Board members, volunteers and WOASF staff for all of their service and support during my time as President of WOASF. As of November 1, 2017 the spouse of the Commander, Naval Air Force, U.S. Atlantic Fleet will no longer assume the position of President of WOASF but instead will become a member of the Board of Directors. I would like to welcome Terry Kelly to the Board of Directors, her husband, RADM Roy Kelly, will take over as AIRLANT on October 19th.

I look forward to continuing my support of WOASF and I hope to see you at the College A Cappella Concert! It is going to be another great year for everyone to "Invest in the Best".

Did you notice our new address and phone number?? Thanks to everyone who helped outfit our new office practically for free!

Fair Winds and Following Seas

It is always sad when we have to say goodbye to our board members, but it is especially true when saying fair winds and following seas to Marjy Starling, a longtime volunteer with WOASF. Marjy has held every “job” we have, from executive director to board member. She was part of WOASF when we were still an all volunteer operation working out of New Hampshire House. Marjy has seen many changes and has been right there along the way, with helping to incorporate the foundation, creating the first selection rubric and getting golf tournaments up and running in Virginia Beach and Pax River. She has always been the strongest of supporters for WOASF and we’ll miss her very much.

As you saw on the previous page, Linda Lindsey will be leaving us as President of WOASF with the AIR-LANT change of command this month. Linda’s volunteering with WOASF goes much further back than just her time as the spouse of AIRLANT; she has been the foundation’s secretary, a scholarship committee member, San Diego golf volunteer and much more. Like Marjy, Linda’s time with WOASF predates a professional staff and office. Without our original core of volunteers, we wouldn’t be where we are today.

Welcome Aboard

As Linda and Marjy depart the pattern, we have new directors coming in for a landing. First, please welcome Mark Haller, President of Tri-tec Manufacturing. Mark is a west coast supporter, attending all of our events in San Diego for several years. Mark is Vice President of Navy League, Seattle and plans on expanding our fundraising reach to the PACNORWEST. Look for a new PACNORWEST golf tournament in 2018!

Also joining us is Terry Kelly, spouse of incoming COMNAVAIRLANT, RADM Roy Kelley. Terry has experience with WOASF as a San Diego golf volunteer. We all look forward to working with Terry!

Celebrate 30 years of scholarships with the $30 Bucks a Month Challenge

What would you do with an extra $30 per month? See a movie, get Starbucks for a week? It would be nice, but would it change your life?

If you donated $30 per month to WOASF, we would be able to award several more scholarships to very deserving students. If 10 people signed up for the challenge, that would be one new scholarship, 20 would be two more, 50 would be five more.

Thirty dollars might not change your life, but it can change the life of one of our Navy Dependents.

Help us celebrate our 30th anniversary and join us in pledging $30 per month! It's easy, just sign up for a recurring donation on the donation page on our website.

Volunteers of the Year

Kristin Walt, 2017 VOY

We have many wonderful volunteers that help WOASF plan and staff our events, prepare applications and select our scholars. But two talented volunteers have gone above and beyond this year—Shelley Bolt and Kristin Walt! Both of these ladies were integral in our 2017 San Diego Weekend for Wings, our largest fundraiser to date!

Kristin is our Auction chair and is responsible for tracking and displaying over 100 items for the event. As anyone who has been involved in a charity auction can attest, everything hits at the last minute and you are herding cats with baskets up to the final minutes. But Kristin is an exceptional “cat wrangler” and had everything in hand well before go time. She knew every one of the items by heart and had a plan to execute the whole event flawlessly. The auction not only had fabulous items, but was also visually stunning.

Shelley is the penultimate organizer and keeps the whole weekend on track. A whiz with spreadsheets, videos, Vimeo and Cava (new programs to us at WOASF), Shelley not only has every last detail finalized but also presents everything in an exquisitely polished way. Hand her a thumb drive of pictures and in five minutes you have a video ready to be posted to YouTube! Shelley works throughout the year looking for new opportunities to elevate WOASF and our events. Look for new online bidding at this year's event, courtesy of Shelley's work.

*Shelley Bolt,
2017 VOY*

As a national organization with only a small staff in VA, we couldn't complete our mission coast to coast without our extortionary network of volunteers. To each and everyone of them, we, the staff, say thank you!

Receiving an award for my academics and community involvement has truly been a blessing. I am incredibly grateful for all Navy sailors and their families who serve this country and create wonderful organizations such as WOASF to help fellow members of our community. Growing up in a navy family has had its challenges, but with exceptional generosity the naval community has created a system of support that continues to hold the family dynamic together. With this grant, I can breathe much easier knowing that the stressful expenses of college won't be placed entirely upon me. Thank you so much Wings Over America for your continual generosity and support of the families of the Naval Aviation Community - Caitlin Ware, University of Portland
