

Alex Anduze

Two-Year Scholarship Recipient

2015 Bachelor of Business Administration
University of Miami

“Receiving this scholarship has been a blessing for my family and me. The cost of a college education has soared to unseen heights in recent years. These huge costs have placed much stress on families around the country including mine. Winning this scholarship is a big step to relieve the financial and psychological stress that comes from having to pay for college and for that my family and I are very grateful.”(2011)

Sandra Day O’Connor College of Law
2015-2018

“I graduated from the University of Miami with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance. After leaving UM, I moved to Phoenix to study law at the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law. While in law school, I participated in two moot court (mock trial) competitions in Hong Kong, studied abroad in Milan for a semester, and secured an internship at Intel Corporation working as a legal intern. Since graduating from law school with my Juris Doctor, I have been working at Intel as a Contract Manager specializing in complex technology transactions and negotiations. I consider myself very lucky because it is, generally, rare to find corporate jobs after law school, and that was always my goal.

In my free time, I love to travel, snowboard, and cook. Some of my favorite places I have visited over the past few years have been Japan, Portugal, and Denmark. I have been lucky enough to snowboard all over the US (Colorado, California, Idaho, Arizona, Vermont, and New York), in British Columbia, Canada, and in the Swiss Alps. I have also, recently, taken up playing tennis and volleyball after a long hiatus since college.”
