Four-Year Renewable Scholarship Recipient

2018 Bachelor of Arts in both
Psychology and Political Science
Washington and Jefferson College

“Receiving this scholarship award means the world to me. Growing up with my dad in the navy was not always easy but it became a part of who I am. The same drive he had for his work was mirrored by my drive for school. Ever since I was young, I have tried to put as much effort as possible into my schoolwork. I have done my best to go above and beyond what is required of me whether it is in the classroom, on the field or in the community. To be recognized for my efforts by such a highly regarded foundation is beyond an honor that I could have ever hoped to receive. Thank you so much for this award.” (2015)

Karli-Ann graduated summa cum laude from Washington and Jefferson College in December 2018. She graduated a semester early with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Political Science. She was involved in the college newspaper as an editor, played college soccer, and did numerous work studies around campus.

After graduating, she relocated back to the Hampton roads area where she grew up. There, she began her current role as a Recruiting Partner at Bradley-Morris | RecruitMilitary helping military veterans find civilian careers after separating. She enjoys being able to help people transition into their career by helping with the hiring process from start to finish. In her free time, she plays in an adult soccer league and is eagerly planning her wedding with her fiancé for next summer. (2019)
