

Maritime Patrol Association Scholar

Donald “Noah” Varner

Hollywood, MD

West Virginia University

Major: Industrial Mathematics and Statistics

College GPA: 3.76

Activities:

- Presbyterian Student Fellowship Historian
- West Virginia University CRU
- Varsity Soccer
- Volunteer: First Presbyterian Church Sunday School Leader, Vacation Bible School Leader, Boys & Girls Club of Monongalia County
- Year Round Employment: WVU Math Tutor, Capital Area Soccer Referee Association

Receiving this scholarship was very important to me because has helped lighten my burden of the cost of college. As an Industrial Math and Statistics major, there are a few paths I can go with that degree. I would like to pursue the analysis of big data, and to do that this degree is very important to me. This scholarship has helped me be able to pay for college, and that in turn has helped me become closer to achieving the job I desire.