Statement: I have found in life that it is important to set goals, but the ultimate reward is achieving them. Moreover, it is valuable to have the support and encouragement you need to succeed. My goal was to complete my education and apply that experience to my career. Wings Over America has validated that I can and will succeed in the goals I have set. With personal commitment, family support, and this generous scholarship from Wings Over America, I have been granted the ability to dedicate myself full time to my studies, which will be beneficial to my educational and professional growth. Thank you Wings Over America. It's because of you that I will be a part of University of Missouri, Class of 2013!
