

Marjorie D. Starling

Marjorie D. Starling has been associated with the Navy all of her life-- first as a Navy Junior and then 36 years as a Navy Spouse.

Having graduated with both a B.S. in Education and a M.Ed. in Audiology from the University of Virginia, Marjorie first practiced as an Audiologist. She then transitioned to teaching both regular and special education in elementary through high school. Leaving teaching, Marjorie then served as the Development Coordinator for Dolphin Scholarship Foundation.

A firm believer in volunteerism, she has been involved with the Girl Scouts of America, the Boy Scouts of America, the Navy Marine Corps Relief Society, and multiple Navy Spouse organizations including VA-145, USS SHREVEPORT (LPD-12), USS Dwight D. Eisenhower (CVN-69), and the USS George Washington (CVN-73) Battlegroup. While her husband was Commander Naval Air Forces Atlantic (COMNAVAIRLANT), she held the position of Executive Director for Wings Over America Scholarship Foundation. She was awarded the Superior Public Service Award for her volunteerism.

Marjorie and her husband, Denby, have three children: twin daughters, Renee and Jennifer, and a son, Patrick.

She is pleased to be able to return to serve on the Board of Directors for WOASF.
